

This is former Senator David Vitter with a very important update regarding Libya.

Last week, the Trump Administration hosted key officials from the Libyan Government in Washington, DC to discuss the security situation there as well as joint efforts against ISIS. The discussions were extremely productive. Following them, the two governments issued the important joint statement attached.

As you will see, this statement makes crystal clear that:

- The Libyan Government is the official Government of Libya recognized by the US and the UN.
- The unwarranted, stalled offensive by Haftar and his mislabeled "Libyan National Army" against the Libyan Government and Tripoli must stop immediately.
- The US and the international community must work to stop foreign interference, particularly from Russia, fueling Haftar's destructive offensive.

This meeting and joint statement were extremely important.

As always, please call or email with any thoughts, suggestions, or questions. Thank you.

David
